“Herein lie buried many things which if read with patience may show the strange meaning of being black here at the dawning of the Twentieth Century. This meaning is not without interest to you, Gentle Reader; for the problem of the Twentieth Century is the problem of the color line, - the relation of the darker to lighter races of men in Asia and Africa, in America and the islands of the sea.”

The Souls of Black Folk, W.E.B. Du Bois, 1906
