

Food

Meats

Mr. Powdrell's Barbeque

Smoked Beef Brisket

Side Order

Macaroni & Cheese

Collard Greens

Potato Salad

Rolls

Cold Beverages

Special Thanks

Alfred Mathewson, J.D.

Agnes Harrison, B.A.

Admasu Shunkuri, Ph.D.

Mohamed Ali, Ph.D.

Charles Becknell, Jr., Ph.D.

Jamal Martin, Ph.D., M.P.H.

Belinda D. Wallace, Ph.D.

Kadeshia L. Matthews, Ph.D.

Benjamin Hazard, M.A.

Natasha Howard, Ph.D.

Marsha Hardeman, J.D., M.P.A.

Kathy Powers, Ph.D.

Nancy Lopez, Ph.D.

Steven Bishop, J.D., Ph.D.

Sonia Gipson Rankin, J.D.

Gbenga F. Olorunsiwa, M.A., ABD

Debra Johns, M.A.

Webster Matjaka, M.A.

Date: May 15, 2013

Time: 4:00 pm — 6:00 pm

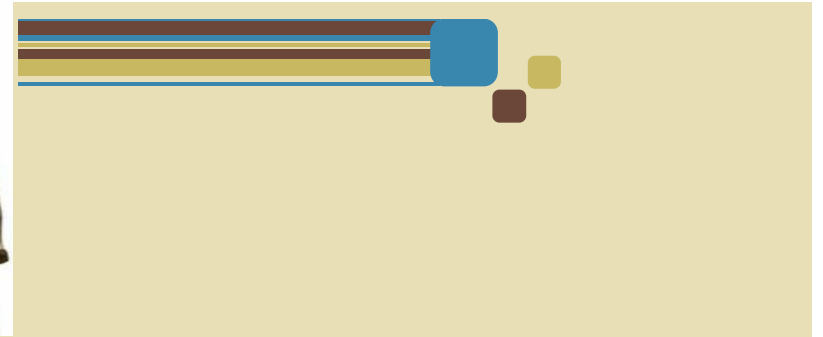

Place: AFST, Mesa Vista Hall

The University
of
New Mexico
Africana
Studies Program
presents

*Spring 2013
Graduate Recognition & End of Semester Celebration*

Master of Ceremony Alfred D. Mathewson

PROGRAM PART ONE

Africana Studies

Program Description—Past, Present and Future—

Prof. Alfred Mathewson

5 Minute Intermission

PROGRAM PART TWO

Farewell and Godspeed Oratory on Public Scholarship/
Activism— Dr. Jamal Martin

Recognition of Graduates—Faculty

15 Minute Intermission

PROGRAM PART THREE

Luncheon and Networking—All

The Graduates

Graduate Michael Burt

Graduate Deion Clark

Graduate Salmon Dalton

Graduate Christina Foster

Reflection

VOICE

Visibility— in academia and community advocacy and public policy;

Organization—structural and intergroup resources, professional productivity, interaction and coalition

Information—research, dissemination and effective networking;

Community linkages— responsibility, interaction, and reciprocity identifying needs/issues; and

Education—scholarship and training/implement programs and policies to improve quality of life

Source: Aldridge & Young, p.8

Produced by

Africana Studies Program